RIESLING

When we talk of German riesling we often think of how sweet it is, what's often forgotten is the fact that riesling is high in acidity and needs some sugar for balance. When balanced perfectly the wines are stunningly aromatic, refreshing, complex and majestic.

It can be infuriating and it's going to cost you a lot of money, but when it's good there's nothing else quite like it.

DOMAINE PRIEURE-ROCHE, GRAND VINS DE BOURGOGNE

Vignerons, Henry Frederic Roch and Yannick Champ certainly don't consider themselves wine 'makers' as such, but rather custodians who manage a natural process. In humility, they allow their Grand Vins de Bourgogne to develop and express the terroir and vines from where they're born all the while protecting the developing beverage from any risks that may lead to an unbalance. Proudly, they defend the tastes born of their soils, since originality in a wine is to be enjoyed just as its vintage dictates.

An opinion supported by the longevitiy of their wines, as well as the prices they fetch on the secondary market. Rarer than a hen's tooth.
